Mission Valley YMCA Skate Park To Host Big-Name Pros At Second Annual CLASH at Clairemont

The “CLASH at Clairemont” returns to the Mission Valley YMCA’s Krause Family Skate Park from 11:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, March 8. Superstars like Tony Hawk, Shaun White and Andy Macdonald will join about 20 other big-name skateboarding and BMX stunt-riding pros who will perform gravity-defying tricks on the West Coast's largest vert ramp. (This ramp was used in the 2006 X Games and then donated by ESPN.) The YMCA will also be unveiling its new mini vert ramp (one of the largest mini verts in San Diego) along with an entirely rebuilt street course.

The event, presented by PacSun and the Mission Valley YMCA, will feature live music by fluf and AXXYS. Along with the demos, there will be autograph opportunities with some of the pros and lots of giveaways. The park will also be filled with numerous product and food booths for purchases.

Admission to the “CLASH at Clairemont” is a $10 minimum donation (food purchases not included). All proceeds from the event go to the Mission Valley YMCA’s Krause Family Skate Park and “Grind For Life,” an organization that provides financial assistance to cancer patients and their families.

Mission Valley YMCA’s Krause Family Skate & Bike Park is located at 3401 Clairemont Drive (there will be parking available at Marston Middle School). For more information about this event or directions to the park, call go to www.clash2.com or call (619) 298-3576.
